5TH EDITION

The Care of the Older Person

Edited by Ronald Caplan

This fifth edition brings to you updated and revised content, built on the basic understanding that medicine does not work in a vacuum, but rather alongside other disciplines to provide the environment for a healthy and fulfilling long life. Edited by alumni and senior faculty at McGill University, with international contributions, this book advocates the achievement of better, longer, satisfying, and more productive lives for older persons. A helpful resource for physicians, professional caregivers, therapists, students, and residents in medical and nursing disciplines, who care for our burgeoning older population, and need to know what to look for and when to consult specialists.

"A readable, engaging and thought-provoking book that offers a broad overview of ageing and aged care, while at the same time providing detailed and relevant clinical information."

- Glenn Duns, MDCM, FRACGP, MPH, Melbourne

"Strategies to mitigate, and even avoid, such conditions, including possible changes in lifestyle, which I have spent a lifetime advocating, are detailed, as well as how to care for persons who are living with such conditions."

- Joe De Sena, Founder and CEO of Spartan

"The fifth edition of The Care of the Older Person [...] is an excellent resource for the improvement of health and nutrition and the diagnosis and treatment of disease in the geriatric patient"

- Mary C. McCarthy, MD, FACS, MAMSE, Professor Emeritus, Wright State University School of Medicine
